

WILLIAM CECIL
STAMFORD

Say 'I do' at The William Cecil

The William Cecil is a multi-award winning venue, and lies within the magnificent Burghley Estate of the beautiful, historic town of Stamford. The centrepiece of which is Burghley House, one of the foremost Treasure Houses in the United Kingdom.

Evoking the timeless romance of the English countryside, set on the doorstep of historic Burghley, The William Cecil is a truly memorable setting for your special wedding day.

Our focus is orchestrating stunning weddings, whether they are grand and formal, or intimate, casual, and exceptionally unique.

Your Day, Your Way

Sometimes organising a wedding can be overwhelming, but here at The William Cecil our experienced and dedicated wedding team will guide you every step of the way.

Our award-winning wedding specialists can assist with your planning to ensure that your day happens exactly as you dreamed.

With our bespoke weddings you can create your perfect day from start to finish. You can tailor what's being served on the day to your own preference. Have a look at our menus and drinks selections for inspiration, or contact our wedding team to discuss your ideal day and put together a personalised quote for you.

Your Ceremony

The William Cecil has three locations licensed for civil ceremonies - our magnificent outdoor garden pavilion is a stunning space set in the hotel's beautifully landscaped gardens, surrounded by wildflowers.

Alternatively, our Burghley Room and Exeter Gallery inside the hotel's historic building are full of character, warmth and atmosphere.

Our maximum room capacities are:

The Garden Pavilion - 120 guests

The Exeter Gallery - 60 guests

The Burghley Room - 120 guests

Your Reception

We have two function rooms to choose from for your wedding breakfast. The first is our Marquee, which is set in our landscaped gardens and can accommodate up to 120 guests. With draped ceilings and chandeliers it makes the perfect backdrop for an elegant wedding breakfast.

The second, The Burghley Room, is situated in the main hotel building and can accommodate up to 80 seated guests, or 120 for evening celebrations.

With the hire of The Burghley Room, we include the adjacent Exeter Gallery, which offers a quieter space for those wanting to take a break from dancing and rest their feet.

Wine & Dine

We know that a big part of what makes a wedding so special is being able to spend time with friends and family whilst enjoying some wonderful food and drink in gorgeous surroundings.

The William Cecil, and its neighbourhood bistro, Milly's is renowned for its exceptional food and we have won awards for it's menu. Bex and her team are passionate about using locally-sourced ingredients and she has used her creativity and skills to design an extensive range of menu options ready for you to discover.

If you'd like a magnificent selection of canapés, an evening buffet with a wow factor, epic feasting menu, or just classic favourites, we can make it happen for you.

Alternatively, if you don't fancy a formal sit down breakfast then we can offer you a BBQ instead.

An Intimate Affair

For those intimate ceremonies with your nearest and dearest, we can create your dream wedding day.

Available individually or together, our adjoining private dining rooms are the perfect spaces for a cosy family gathering.

Capacities:

Darcy or Bennet - 14

Darcy & Bennet- 26

For parties of 12 to 26 we can serve our Milly's feasting menu to create a luxury family banquet.

After dinner, guests can retire to our lounge with deep sofas, record player and books. It's the perfect spot to enjoy a glass of champagne, lose track of time, and catch up with your loved ones.

The background image shows a well-appointed bedroom. A large bed with white linens and patterned pillows is the central feature. To the right, a wooden desk holds a lamp with a woven shade and some papers. A window with floral curtains is visible behind the bed. The room has a classic, elegant feel with a patterned carpet and a chandelier hanging from the ceiling.

Rest Your Head

Handsomely beautiful, classically charming and devoted to serious comfort, each of our 26 bedrooms are perfectly placed for an overnight stay.

Our showstopper honeymoon suite comes with a spacious lounge area, his and her bathrooms, and it's very own private terrace and garden - the perfect backdrop for those morning wedding photos.

In all of our rooms you will find:

Luxurious full-size Bramley toiletries

Roberts radio

Nespresso machines

Birchall teas, and coffee from The Stamford Coffee Co

Homemade treats

Belu water

We also have a further 9 bedrooms at our sister property, The Bull & Swan. 150 yards down the road.
